He has been doing the job for 12 years, and in that period of time has put into working condition thousands of toys of all types and descriptions. He was started in his work, according to him, by Mrs. Helen Staley and reports that it is wonderful to be able to do something for others. He has fixed up everything from bicycles to trains and from dolls to drums. His work is continuous even though he is an invalid and confined to his home. (Desert Sun Photo).

City, Chamber Protest Local Bus Station

Two letters citing the "unkempt condition" of the Palm Springs Greyhound Bus Terminal have been directed to the transportation firm's regional offices in Los Angeles by the City of Palm Springs and the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce.

City Manager R. W. Peterson and Chamber Manager Jimmy Cooper, in politely worded letters, demanded that the bus line clean up its premises at 221 North Indian Avenue.

A PRIOR ATTEMPT by the two organizations — in 1957 — seeking a general cleanup of the bus line's terminal here resulted in only perfunctory work.

"Your terminal facilities," the city manager declared in his letter, "are of major importance in this resort community. A visitor's first and last impression of Palm Springs can well be his impression of the various transportation terminals."

Cooper called the terminal "a disgrace to both the community and to the largest bus company in the United States."

THE TWO MEN SAID that complaints had reached both City Hall and the Chamber of Commerce regarding "the need for painting, unsightly restroom facilities, trash piled in the parking areas" and even general upkeep of the terminal site.

"Somehow," Cooper said, "a solution must exist." He asked the bus company to send a representative to Palm Springs to meet with the city's administration, Chamber representatives and other interested parties in the hope of finding a solution.

"OVER A YEAR AND A half ago," Cooper added, "we had considerable discussion regarding this situation (with Greyhound representatives)."

He said that in spite of the fact that the city and Chamber both offered full cooperation at that time, the Chamber has still "been taken to task for the general appearance and condition of the local bus depot."

President Plans For Conference

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower met for two hours with staff members today laying plans for an all-day conference Monday with GOP leaders on the administration's legislative proposals to the new Congress.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said Monday's meeting with seven Republican congressional leaders would get under way at 8:30 a.m. He said it likely would last most of the day with only a break for lunch.

CV Economic Potential Discussions Started Here

A discussion of the economic potential of the Coachella Valley area, with the emphasis on proper advance planning to facilitate growth, has been launched here by the Coachella Valley Economic Development Committee.

County officials met with industrialists and agriculturalists in the first of a series of such programs last night in the Hilltop Room of the Casitas del Monte here.

"WE'RE ATTEMPTING to plan development and gauge future trends for overall programming in the Coachella Valley area," said Gil McCoy, a member of the industrial planning organization that serves Riverside County.

"We want to get a well-planned, fully-drawn program on paper, not just in our minds, that will allow this Valley to expand properly, normally," said McCoy.

Walter Wright, chairman of the CV Economic Development Committee, said that the motivating factor was "proper planning" of expansion in the Valley.

"WE WANT TO HEAD off mistakes before we make them," he said. "We intend to profit by mistakes that other areas have made."

"We're hoping," McCoy added, "that we don't run into the problems other areas have faced."

Last night's meeting scheduled a special evaluation of the Salton Sea project and brought Jerry Engstrand, developer of both Salton Sea and Mecca areas, forward with explanations of the problems he considers important.

PRESENT AT THE meeting were three members of the County Board of Supervisors — Chairman Paul Anderson, George Berkeley and Curtis Chamberlain, and a lengthy list of organization and development leadership.

1,000 Toys Given to PD Yule Party

Manufacturer Gives $8,000 Gift for Chamber's Effort

PALM DESERT — More than a thousand individual gifts with a total value exceeding $8,000 have been donated to the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce Christmas Party, scheduled for 2 p.m., Dec. 22, at Firecliff Lodge.

The gifts, donated by Joe Gokey, president of the Structo Toy Manufacturing Co. of Freeport, Ill., will be distributed to youngsters in attendance of the party. Included in the attendance at the giant yule fete will be a busload of children from Angel View Crippled Children's Hospital at Desert Hot Springs, according to PD Chamber president Phil Franklin.

BING CROSBY, Palm Desert's honorary mayor, and Fred Haney, manager of the National League champion Milwaukee Braves, were also announced by Franklin as aiding in the party program.

Crosby, Franklin said, will autograph 100 copies of his 15-year-old recording of the best-seller "White Christmas" for the first 100 citizens to show up at the Christmas party with a box of groceries. The foodstuffs will be made up into baskets for needy families in the desert region, Franklin said.

HANEY CALLED Franklin yesterday, the Chamber chief reported, to advise that 200 baseballs—autographed by every member of the senior circuit champions—are ready for the big party.

Youngsters in attendance will draw for the prized balls and will also draw for a bike.

5 Desert Items Set for Board

Five items of interest to the desert area are listed on next Monday's agenda of the County Board of Supervisors, which meets at the Court House in Riverside at 9 a.m.

A regular meeting of the Air Pollution Control District will be held at 11 a.m.

Other matters include a map of roads on North Shore Beach Estates at Salton Sea for approval, a presentation of the recreation plans for the Colorado River, a resolution requesting legislation to allow additional departments of the Superior Court, and the review of nomination petitions for directors of the Coachella Valley Soil Conservation District.

Rock'n Roll to End, Predicts Dean of U.S. Songwriters

By GEORGE LAINE

"Tom Dooley," the song now riding the crest of record sales charts throughout the country, isn't going to be up there long.

The authority for the statement is L. Wolfe Gilbert, at 72 regarded as the dean of American songwriters, and he figures that what will happen to the Dooley hit will also happen — eventually — to rock and roll in general.

"IT'LL DIE OUT," Wolfe said yesterday, as he relaxed and cut up old touches with a gang of Palm Springs buddies. He leaned forward in a chair at the apartment he has taken in the Sunset Towers here and warmed to his subject.

"You know what's really going to kill rock and roll?" he asked. "Guys like Pat Boone and Johnny Mathis. The kids love those two. And they can respect them where they can't respect some of the rock and rollers."

WOLFE TOUCHED off a wild controversy earlier this year when he told a TV audience on the George Jessel show that "while most singers are instructed to sing from the diaphragm, Elvis Presley sings from the hips."

"I don't like to be a knocker," Gilbert said, his face growing suddenly serious, "but I can't see the merit in rock and roll."

"No bonafide craftsman in the song writing profession can write rock and roll. I know. I've tried it. I wrote two or three things and played them for my daughter, Ellen. She told me to forget rock and roll."

"I GUESS," WOLFE mused, "that I couldn't mutilate the melody enough."

Gilbert, who halted his songwriting long enough to publish an autobiography ("Without Rhyme Or Reason") back in 1956 that is now in its fourth printing, can't mutilate a melody at all.

He wrote "Waiting For the Robert E. Lee," "Ramona," "Down Yonder," "Jeanie, I Dream Of Lilac Time," "My Mother's Eyes," "Peanut Vendor," "By Heck," "Green Eyes" and—well, you could run about two galleries of type trying to list all of Wolfe's songs and still not be sure you had named them all.

IN FACT, GILBERT had forgotten his "Down Yonder" when it burst into the charts a couple of seasons ago.

"I wrote it in 1922," Wolfe recalled. "And I had the best of 'em singing it—Jolson, Cantor, Ethel Merman."

"It flopped very big."

So Gilbert put the tune out of his mind.

Snow, Cold Ravage Nation; California Has 'Heat Wave'

United Press International

Fresh snows pounded the eastern two-thirds of the nation from Canada to Mexico early today, climaxing a week of record snows, sub-zero temperatures and California's worst heat wave since the days of the gold rush.

Heavy snow warnings were up for Texas and Arkansas—the latter was hit by nine inches of snow Friday night—and a new storm rolling across the plains tumbled a widespread cold wave in its advance.

Animal Lost But Mission 'Successful'

Weightlessness 'Not Harmful,' Experiment Shows

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI) —A smart little monkey with plenty of stamina was shot 1,700 miles through space today but apparently died in the interest of science in the wastes of the South Atlantic Ocean.

The mission was called "completely successful" despite the loss of the space traveler.

THE MONKEY, named Little Old Reliable, was a passenger in the nose cone of a Jupiter intermediate range missile that zipped probably 300 miles high and then plummeted back into the earth's atmosphere at 10,000 miles an hour.

Ships and planes criss-crossed the ocean for hours but finally the search was given up.

Instruments tied to the monkey and which relayed information back to earth proved that prolonged weightlessness is of little harm to living creatures.

THE MONKEY chosen for the mission was one of high intelligence and with most of the emotions common to humans.

There were squawks despite the scientific nature of the flight. Britain's Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals said the society "views with grave concern and apprehension that monkeys or even any other animal should be used in these experiments."

IN A STATEMENT released by the Defense Department, Navy Capt. Norman Lee Barr said the monkey's breathing was slower than normal and slightly irregular during the takeoff. But Barr said that after the missile soared beyond the pull of earth's gravity, the monkey's breathing and pulse rate returned to normal.

Barr said the most significant finding from the monkey's flight, recorded through instruments attached to the little beast's body, was that "the prolonged gravity-free state does not produce significant adverse physiological change."

DULLES ARRIVES TODAY IN PARIS

PARIS (UPI) — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles arrived today to lead the Western Allies in seeking an effective answer to the new Communist effort to capture West Berlin.

President Eisenhower's special plane "Columbine," that brought Dulles here, landed at 11:30 a.m. (p.s.t.) at Orly Airfield in threatening weather.

DULLES APPEARED rested and cheerful as he walked down the landing steps into a cold drizzle. He showed no signs of the ailment that made it necessary for him to take a few days' rest at Washington's Walter Reed Army Hospital earlier this week.

The secretary was welcomed at the airport by U.S. Ambassador Amory Houghton, Pierre Pelletier, a high official of French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville's staff, and other U.S. and French officials.

EMBASSY OFFICIALS said Dulles will meet Premier Charles de Gaulle at 4:30 p.m. Monday to discuss the world situation.

The secretary was the first foreign leader to arrive for the crucial conference on Berlin which will be held in advance of the annual meeting of the Atlantic Pact council, which opens Thursday.

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and West German Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano, other participants in the "Big Four" Berlin conference, are expected tonight.

West Berlin's Mayor Willy Brandt is also heading for Paris on his own initiative to speak for the 2.2 million people of his threatened city.

Jail Sentence Given as Result Injury Accident

Arthur Pellum, 21-year-old Village motorist, went to jail for 30 days yesterday as the result of an auto crash that injured five persons here Sunday.

Pellum, of 468 East Arenas Road, was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail on charges of reckless driving in a case involving injuries by Judge Theriault.

Judge Theriault also suspended Pellum's driver's license for 90 days.

Pellum, who pleaded guilty to the reckless driving charge, was reportedly drag racing with another car when he attempted to pass an auto on the right, lost control and slammed into an oncoming car on East Ramon Road, near Grenfell Road.

Five persons, including Pellum, were injured in the crash. None were critically hurt.

Missionary in Tibet

'Snowmen' Are Religious Hermits

FRANKFURT, Germany (UPI) — A missionary who just returned from Tibet said today the "abominable snowmen" of the high Himalayas are saint-like recluses who devote their lives to healing. He scoffed at reports that they are giant, shaggy cannibals.

In an exclusive interview, Roman Catholic Father Franz Eichinger expanded on the report published in a church paper Friday that he met one of the "snowmen" during the 13 years he spent in Tibet.

THE SMALL, BALDING missionary spoke to this correspondent in Frankfurt's railway station at 1 a.m., during a short stopover on a trip from Wuppertal to his home mission near Munich.

"These highly-religious hermits are definitely what are popularly known as abominable snowmen," Eichinger said. "Reports that these men are responsible for acts of cannibalism are absurd."

EICHINGER, WHO has several photographs of the recluses, said they are "just like normal humans" except that they are very thin because of a scanty diet and frequent fasting.

"Their main calling is the curing of people, particularly children," he said.

The missionary said the "snowman" he met had come down from the towering heights of the Himalayas to treat an ailing child in a valley village.

EICHINGER DISMISSED re-

his mind. And when Ralph Peer, his publisher, called him one night at the Derby a couple of years ago and asked if Wolfe had written a song called "Down Yonder," Gilbert scratched his head for a moment. Then he remembered.

"THAT DOG," HE told Peer. "Don't mention that damn thing." What had happened, Wolfe found out later, was that a piano player in a Nashville music store had remembered hearing her mother sing the song and had recorded it. The record was starting to go big and major companies were covering the record.

"Champ Butler had the big record on it," Wolfe remembered, "but there were a lot of versions."

WOLFE, JUST returned from a European tour, did TV and radio spots in France and England and other places and dipped into his inexhaustible file of anecdotes for one about the tour.

"In England, they toast with cherrin," he said, "in France it's a vodka sante, Israel uses la chain, Italy has salute and Denmark drinkers say skold."

"In Greece, no one could figure out what to say for a toast. There were Greeks all around us and no one wanted to ask so finally I solved it. I raised my glass and said 'Skouras!'"

THE ONE - TIME vaudeville comic said that he's in Palm Springs "for fun only" and intends to spend some time with old buddies Frank Scully and Pat O'Day. He's busier now than he's ever been, but still he keeps tackling new assignments. He accepted a post as West Coast chairman for ASCAP and he's never turned down a chance to appear at any of the "banquet circuit" functions or a legitimate charity campaign.

WOLFE, WHOSE lyric for "Waiting For the Robert E. Lee" was made a part of the Congressional Record by Alabama Senator John Sparkman, qualifies as one of the most often interviewed persons in the country. The question most asked (and the one he dislikes most) is one that is phrased like:

"Well, you wrote all these wonderful songs a long time ago and they're standing the test of time, but what have you written in the last few months?"

To which Wolfe has a stock reply. "Do I," he questions softly, "have to write more?"

Schrage, shot with a .45-caliber pistol, is recovering in a Vicksburg hospital. A woman arrested in connection with the incident, Mrs. Renee Perry also was released.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

This Side of The Sun By Phat

Now's the time to Put the Hex
On the guys who Spell it with an X.

Let's see, it's December 13. Good time as any to sound off again with the annual complaint about spelling Christmas in that abbreviated form—Xmas.

IN SO DOING, I am again laying myself wide open to attacks from the defenders of the usage. I'll probably get proof that use of Xmas is proper. There'll be discourses on semantics and also just ordinary wordage.

I'll probably get a picture of Greek letters and word that X stands for Christ. Therefore Xmas is right. But, anyway, I don't like to abbreviate Christmas the same way you do crossing. Like in Ped Xing.

WHEN JOE PORTNOY was taken to the hospital last week-end his many friends rallied to see that he had some extra comforts there. They chipped in and the fund had grown to almost $70 when word came of his sudden death.

So those who volunteered to be responsible for the fund met the night before Joe's funeral. They decided to spend a portion of the money for flowers for Joe and then to give him a memorial.

THIS MEMORIAL will be a permanent one. The large balance of the fund will go to the Boys' Club of Palm Springs in Joe's name. As a memorial to him. Joe liked the kids who belong to the Boys' Club. They were his friends and he was their friend.

IT'S PROBABLY not too early, with the long Christmas holiday less than two weeks off, to start urging greater traffic caution during the next few days.

People will be in a hurry. They want to get from the job to the stores in time for that forgotten gift. They've got lots on their minds. So it is up to everyone to be extra careful.

DECEMBER, according to insurance company, safety council and police records, is one of the deadliest months of the year insofar as traffic accidents are concerned. Worse than that, a tragedy around Christmas time, when more poignant memories. Because, each year at the holiday season, the memory of the one who isn't there to share what should be a happy occasion, will come back sharply. So be careful throughout the holiday season — and afterwards, too.

WITH SO MANY telephone numbers changed from what they are in the directory, I get irked when a female voice tells me I'm dialing a wrong number. And feel foolish after I snap back and try to tell her that that's the way it's in the directory to hear: "This is a recording. You can't argue with a tape."

EARL WILSON:

She Met This Man...

NEW YORK—When our new glamour girl Dolores Hart spoke to me of "your New York gentlemen," there was sarcasm in her voice.

"I missed three cabs on the way over, which were taken away from me by your New York gentlemen," she said ever so coolly. "I waved two cabs down and I had them," she complained, "and then a man jumped in from the other side. But your New York gentlemen are very chivalrous," she added with a tight smile. "They got out and gave you the cab?" I asked.

"Oh, no! But they said they would be glad to take me wherever I was going!" She shrugged and laughed. "And I," she said, "am no match for Brigitte Bardot. The girls who are more impressive numbers on their figures must have to run for it from your New York gentlemen."

Yes, chivalry is dead in New York, particularly during the rush hour, but Chicago-born, Los Angeles-reared Dolores Hart soon will be riding only limousines, anyway.

Just 20, she's in the Broadway hit, "The Pleasure of His Company," and appears with Montgomery Clift and Myrna Loy in the new movie, "Lonelyhearts," and has appeared with Elvis Presley in two pictures, "Loving You" and "King Creole."

At present she isn't rich. "But I can look out of my dirty, crummy windows on some of the most beautiful buildings in the world," she says.

Hal Wallis, one of her discoverers, gave her a bonus when she came in from Hollywood in September to do the play.

"You won't be able to live on what they pay you during rehearsals," he explained.

But as she smiles nightly with Cyril Ritchard, Cornelia Otis Skinner, Walter Abel and Charles Ruggles, and recalls that she's been in two other movies ("Loving You" and "Wild is the Wind"), it must seem to Dolores

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Human Nature to Criticize

HOLLYWOOD — It's human nature to criticize, I guess—and easier, too, than to praise. Then too, TV is everybody's business now, just like the movies used to be. "Why can't they make comedies," we used to hear of the movie studios, "like they used to make?"

Now it's "Why can't television come up with the wonderful kind of stuff we used to see on I Love Lucy, Dragnet and the old Milton Berle and Sid Caesar-Imogene Coca shows?"

WELL, IF YOU firebrand critics who bombard the networks (and this reporter, among others) with this kind of complaint will drop your nostalgic blinders for a second I'd like to remind you that those "Good old Days" were also the days of cheapjack "anthology" shows, shoddy imitations of Dragnet and so-called "situation comedies" that contained hardly a modicum of comedy, despite those phony soundtrack laughs. I think if you'll look back on 1958 less in anger you'll remember some pretty fine accomplishments. Shirley Booth, for instance, belting "Love Is the Reason for It All" on Dinah Shore's Nov. 30 show, ranking with the best of Bea Lillie, Bob Hope, Bert Lahr and even comics whose names have no "B" in them.

THEN THERE WERE Playhouse 90's brilliant "The Plot to Kill Stalin" and "The Old Man," Fred Astaire's enchanting spec with Barrie Chase, the first Bing Crosby-Dean Martin-Mahalia Jackson teaming, some of those fine filmed dramas on Alcoa-Goodyear and Westinghouse-Desilu, and the highly creditable if just this side of perfect "Kiss Me, Kate."

Are these the shows we'll be looking back through rose-colored glasses 10 years from now while complaining about 1966's crop of shows?

KCOP, THE BING Crosby-owned Los Angeles station from which Tom Duggan was "fired" (the station said he was, he said he wasn't) after he made derogatory remarks about George Jessel and producers Hugo Haas and Irwin Berke, has been talking about bringing in Bing's brother, Bob, to replace Tom. Station has also promised to make public apologies to all on the receiving end of Duggan's digs, "after all complaints have been received and digested."

"ME TARZAN, YOU Jane"—that frequently parodied line from the erlies "Tarzan" movies—will be missing from the new series, Tarzan's Greatest Adventures. The reason is basic: juvenile viewers don't like "mush" in their TV diet.

So, for the first time, there will be no "Jane" opposite Gordon Scott's apeman. A few women, yes—when the plot requires them. But no wife Jane. No "Boy" either, for that matter!

For the first time, there will be no "Jane" opposite Gordon Scott's apeman. A few women, yes—when the plot requires them. But no wife Jane. No "Boy" either, for that matter!

Hi-fi'd from the chrous girls' corner at a Bob Hope rehearsal: "I hated giving him the brush-off—honest, there was something I liked about the guy—but he spent it all!"

It Pays to Be Good

AIR-BORNE EASTBOUND—In the first and noblest of Senate filibusters, Robert La Follette and his little band of "willful men" tried to fix for America her ideal foreign policy—a benevolent neutrality.

It was the elder La Follette's idea, often expressed, that by becoming a belligerent in World War I, on whatever side, the United States would surrender its chance to preside over a just and lasting peace, no matter which side won. La Follette was right. Only as a neutral, a benevolent neutral, which is a long way from being a bystander or a passer, has this country ever served mankind in the blessed capacity of peacemaker.

THESE THOUGHTS occur to the traveler who has set his face toward the Middle East. I am riding with the El Al Airlines, as a guest of the Israeli Government. Beside me on the seat is a book entitled "Arab Unity," by the Lebanese scholar, Dr. Fayez A. Sayegh, a volume of which every Zionist, I presume, would heartily disapprove.

But such is the American position toward the warring elements of Israeli and the Arabs, that the American newsmen feels no necessary embarrassment in briefing himself on both sides of the ancient quarrel.

OUR COUNTRY has not been blameless in the Middle East. But in the Middle East, if anywhere, the United States has made a good try and a partial success at benevolent neutrality. We are positioned so that our influence is not wholly unacceptable in the area. We have kept our license to act as an honest broker in all of the accommodations and arrangements whereby these peoples could conceivably live-and-let-live.

In preparing for the trip, I delivered myself into the tutelage of several old Middle East hands at the State Department. Nobody is without bias, and I talked with pro-Arab and pro-Israel diplomats. But the State Department "line" is a small miracle of impartiality.

SECRETARY DULLES himself has taken pains in public utterances to place himself on record for Israel integrity and for Arab unity, even to the extent of speaking kindly of the United Arab Republic, which is headed by Egypt's President Nasser. All Mr. Dulles asks of both sides is that they do not strike matches in the tinder box.

The American advantage is possible, as it seems to me, because we have acted on two balancing occasions with equal kindness to both sides. Many Americans, I know very well, will violently disagree with what I am proposing. But I offer the proposition that President Truman's recognition of Israel in 1946, coupled with President Eisenhower's scrubbing in 1956 of the Anglo-Franco-Israeli war against Egypt, composed a double-act of immense benefit to our Middle East relations.

MR. TRUMAN's impulsiveness has often been described as a bid for the Jewish vote, and it has been decried as a colossal blunder which cost us the friendship of 40 million or more Arabs. Mr. Eisenhower's pacifying of the invaders of Egypt is still be-moaned as a missed opportunity to depose the "Little Hitler" of the Nile.

But these are heated judgments, both based on "expediency" arguments. The Arabs are more numerous, they have the oil, ergo, Mr. Truman was wrong. The Israeli would have captured Cairo, the British would have restored some pro-Western puppet to the throne of the Pharaohs, ergo, Mr. Eisenhower acted unwisely.

WELL, EXPEDIENCY may work for a while, but the great successes in government have been founded upon a better thing. A traveler to the Holy Land may be allowed to mention the Golden Rule. In 1946 we did unto the Republic of Israel as we would have others do unto us. In 1956, we did likewise unto Egypt.

There are few, if any, absolutes in life, but surely a man or a nation does not do wrong when he behaves morally instead of expediently. The reward of doing what's right, just because it is right, is never immediate and obvious. This is as it should be. Otherwise, we might be acting to snatch the reward instead of honoring the principle.

But it is possible for the U.S.A. to approximate an ideal of foreign policy in the Middle East, just as it is virtually impossible in the Far East. We have cast some bread upon the waters. We may be getting it back when we least expect it.

Freedom Is Gaining Around World

Never, since the end of World War II and particularly since the Korean War five years ago, has the drive for freedom all over the world been so formidable. Most governments which toppled in recent months and years were undesirable ones. Some way, somehow, the masses have a way of striking back against oppression from within or from without. This holiday season all over the Christian world provides more hope for world-betterment than any other in recent years.

This is not to suggest an appreciable reduction of crisis in certain explosive areas of the globe. For there always will be areas of crisis in our world abroad as in our world at home. When we realize the extent of "crisis" in this land of freedom and abundance, we should not be too surprised at the extent of crisis around less fortunate nations of the world.

WHEN WE SEE conflict and tragedy among peoples here at home who speak the same language, attend the same churches and clubs, living in a nation with the highest standard of living on earth... we should never expect to see the end of crisis in other worlds where hunger, hopelessness and exploitation prevail.

As we are planning our next assignment around the world in a few months, we find that freedom in backward nations has gained ground, for example, by the emancipation of women. For the first time in history more women are voting in more nations than ever before.

EMANCIPATED womanhood is encouraging men to fight for freedom. Freedom for their children to grow up with hope and usefulness... freedom to achieve, to meet life's challenges without government interference... freedom to compete, to grow by one's own initiative and enterprise.

The world we saw on our last trip was talking more about freedom than about food. This is quite a switch in a world where hunger and hopelessness have been the predominant problems during most of our 27 years of covering the earth.

NOT ALL the transitions to freedom are favorable to us or the West. But most of them are, because our nation is considered by most of the world as synonymous with freedom. This is our strongest weapon against Communism, although it is often hidden behind the shifting winds of expediency and power politics, as is the case in the Middle East. America is by far considered the greatest symbol of free men on earth today.

In recent weeks and months we have watched freedom finding new expressions in areas of the world where no real freedom ever existed. Nation after nation in Africa is gaining either total freedom, or a greater measure of freedom. Ghana, Guinea, Liberia, Sudan, Senegal, Chad, Middle Congo, Mauritania... and before long most certainly Algeria, will be totally free.

OTHERS WILL FOLLOW all over the entire African continent. The masses of Iraq, Pakistan, Thailand are showing far greater freedom through their army leaderships overthrowing unpopular governments.

The people of France have greater representation and a more stable government for the first time in recent history. The Communist-Socialist fringe in France took a terrific beating in this month's elections which swung the nation to the most conservative cycle since World War I.

WITH ALL THE unfavorable political aspects toward the West, it can be said that the millions of Egypt are improving their lot to a far greater degree than they ever did under King Farouk. The growth of Israel no doubt created considerable tension throughout the Arab world and will continue to do so... but the example of Israel has awakened the sleeping giant of Arab and Moslem millions to improve their lot.

Even though crisis and human convulsion are constantly interwoven with any explosive political change, these hazards and tragedies are not entirely without their rewards in the long pull for the betterment of millions of backward people.

FROM ALL REPORTS this will be one of the most joyful Christmas seasons behind the Iron Curtain in years. The uprisings in Hungary, Poland and Czechoslovakia during the past several years left their mark on both sides of the conflict. The Christian and anti-Communist forces were beaten by sheer power of military superiority, but the struggle gained an important victory in another direction.

It proved to Communism that freedom has not been obliterated by intimidation or even the concentration camp. The thousands who died fighting for it made an impression on the dictator which he will not likely soon forget. Their sacrifice will serve as an inspiration to others that slavery cannot long remain unchallenged.

THERE WILL BE more churches and more worshippers openly taking part in Christmas services than at any time in recent years behind the Iron Curtain. In one way or another the faithful are growing in numbers even under conditions of persecution. The whole history of our civilization has proved that the greater the persecution of Christians, or people of any faith, the more they grow in that the total defeat of the atheist faith. This could spell in time and the oppressor.

To the pessimists who repeatedly refer to the ever-increasing number of people under Communist subjugation, we have this to suggest. While it is true that increasing millions have been brought under Communist dictatorship in recent years... the fact remains that in all such countries under Communist domination, no free elections are ever held to give free expression to the voice of the people in regard to Communism.

UNTIL THE PEOPLE of Russia and the people of Red China and the people under Communist dictatorship are allowed to express their free will through a secret ballot, this reporter will never be convinced that Communism is gaining acceptance throughout the world. This is our big point. Subjugation and acceptance are two entirely different things. It is only the sheer force of military and secret-police power that keeps Communist governments in power.

All civilized history proves the inescapable and ultimate downfall of all such immoral dictatorships, before the inevitable avalanche of freedom burning slowly, but surely, in this God-endowed right of all mankind to remain free.

—John Morley

Clark Refutes Reference to School Lights

John Porter Clark, local architect and member of the Palm Springs Planning Commission, today took exception to a remark made by Councilman Leonard Wolf at the council meeting Wednesday night, and stated that he had nothing to do with the planning of the tall lights at the High School auditorium.

"I have never used mercury lighting on tall stanchions, and I believe that it detracts from the beauty of Palm Springs," said the architect.

The issue was brought up at the council meeting when the Mayfair Market was attempting to secure permission from the council to install stronger lighting in the parking lot of the new market in Cameron Center.

The auditorium and the plant site was planned by the firm of Williams, Williams and Williams.

RANCHO MIRAGE — A single building permit was issued here this week for construction of an addition by D. H. Frank, at 70-137 Highway 111.

The valuation of the permit was set at $684.

THE REAR ELEVATION of the Security-First National Bank branch scheduled for the corner of Ramon Road and Indian Avenue—to serve the southern section of Palm Springs—is nearly as attractive and well-appointed as the front elevation. Designed by Arizona's Joseph B. Wong, the building will utilize desert rock for facings and will be landscaped with plants and shrubs peculiar to the desert area. Ground breaking is scheduled for next week with day and hour yet to be announced, and construction is scheduled to commence "immediately" following the ground breaking.

Planners Invited

District Seeks School Locations

Eager to fit into the city's planning scheme, Board of Education members have invited Palm Springs planners to a conference session on future locations of school district buildings.

Board members suggested a meeting with planners and their consultants in January or February to determine how school buildings may fit into the city's future zoning plans.

THE MEETING is particularly aimed at Section 14 school developments and the Civic Center. Discussion of the proposed meeting followed a suggestion by Board Member Frank Muller that plans be launched for immediate construction of bus ports and a bus maintenance depot on five acres of the present 10-acre Section 14 school site.

Muller proposed that the district acquire an additional adjoining five acres to preserve a full 10 acres for eventual elementary school construction after pointing out the need for a bus center.

Schools Supt. Dwight Twist suggested that the school district seek permission to locate its district administration building at the Civic Center and place the bus center in the city's garage area.

But board members agreed that any future school construction plans should dovetail with city planning, particularly, it was noted, in the soon-to-be-developed Section 14 lands.

It was felt that a bus port and garage would not be "desirable" in an area zoned for commercial and residential use.

New Luxury Apartment Development Now Open

Village real estate broker Joe De Francis today announced the opening of Brentwood Apartments, a luxurious new rental apartment development at 1930 Camino Real.

Built by De Francis and co-owner Abe Schwartz, the Brentwood features 10, one-bedroom apartments furnished in the latest of contemporary modern and equipped with built-in, 1959 kitchen appliances.

DE FRANCIS, an associate in the Culver Nichols real estate office, said the apartment units boast almost 800 square feet of living space and are available on leases of six months and one year.

The apartment units are built in three wings forming a U around a pool area highlighted by tasteful desert landscaping and colored flagstone walks.

EACH APARTMENT features wall-to-wall carpeting and fully automatic climate controls for central heat and refrigerated air conditioning.

Kitchens boast built-in ranges and ovens and new, color-styled 1959 Frigidaire refrigerators.

Sliding, wall-length glass doors open the dining area onto a private, walled patio in each apartment.

ALL FURNISHINGS are the newest in styles in contemporary modern and all apartments are equipped with Winfield China, Wallace silverware, bedding and linens.

Construction features include six-inch, soundproofed walls and fully-insulated ceilings for perfect weatherproofing, De Francis said.

"We designed our apartments with the idea of creating an apartment home for adult couples," De Francis explained.

Council Makes It Difficult To Go Out of Business Here

By an action of the City Council this week, local merchants may find it almost impossible to go out of business in Palm Springs.

In an attempt to stop the unsightly display of sale signs on the windows of local shops, which read "stock reduction sale," "going out of business sale," "liquidation sale," or similar, the City Council ordered the Plaza Jewelry store to "do no more advertising of this type in any advertising media until Dec. 26."

MARSHALL REDMAN, owner of the Plaza Jewelry store, petitioned the City Council under its sign ordinance for permission to hold a stock reduction sale prior to the sale of his business. Redman's attorney, Jim Schlecht, said that in view of the council feeling that the sale was "just an opportunity to put on a sale prior to Christmas, we are asking for an amendment to our application, that the sale does not start until after Christmas—possibly Dec. 26."

This was agreeable to the council, provided that an inventory was kept weekly of the items that were sold, a process which is mandatory under the provisions of the ordinance, and the business owner agreed to do so.

CITY ATTORNEY Jerry Bunker, in helping the council draw up its resolution allowing the sale to commence on Dec. 26, and run for 45 consecutive days, then added that the business "could not advertise the stock reduction sale in any media, including newspaper, radio, or magazines, prior to the date of the start of the sale—Dec. 26."

On being questioned on the action by the council, Bunker told reporters that the stopping of advertising was merely a precaution against the possible violation of the ordinance, but seemed undetermined as to whether it was part of the sign ordinance, saying first that it was not, and then that it was.

Game Films Cause of So Many Grid Upsets

By OSCAR FRALEY, United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—Fearless Fraley's facts and figures: The Cleveland Browns and New York Giants meet Sunday with the Eastern Division title of the National Football League at stake but, aside from the final score, even the coaches probably won't know exactly what happened until Monday.

That's when they look at the pictures of the game and it isn't until they slow-motion the whole bit that they can tell which players carried out their assignments and which ones failed.

"You can't say what happened actually until you examine the films," admits Coach Jim Lee Howell of the Giants. "If a player carries out 60 per cent of his blocking assignments, as an example, he's played a real good game. But you can't tell whether he has simply by watching the live action."

Future of Rose Bowl Muddled After '60 Game

CHICAGO, (UPI)—The Rose Bowl's future was up for grabs today, the Big Ten having officially accepted the dissolving Pacific Coast Conference's notice that their New Year's Day football pact would end after the 1960 game.

Nothing was discussed of just what would happen to the classic after that.

The Big Ten Friday also accepted the PCC's proposal that the Jan. 1, 1960 windup game be conducted with the athletic directors of the current Pacific Coast circuit acting as trustees.

The PCC is breaking up at the end of the current season year.

"We have no proposal before us to act upon in regard to future bowl games," Big Ten Assistant Commissioner Bill Reed said.

Favor Rams by 17 Over Packers

LOS ANGELES, (UPI)—Rookie quarterback Joe Francis of the Green Bay Packers gets his big chance Sunday when he directs the Packer attack against the highly-favored Los Angeles Rams at Memorial Coliseum.

About 50,000 probably will watch the Rams, 17-point favorites, against the Packers, who usually give the Los Angeles eleven fits in Green Bay but present little trouble in the Coliseum.

A win for the Rams would insure at least a tie for second place in the National Football League's Western Division.

The Rams are certain to pass the million mark in attendance Sunday for the second straight year.

Francis has been riding the bench most of the year, partly because he's a rookie and partly because he was a single wing tailback in college. But neither Bart Starr nor Babe Parilli has been able to get the Packer offense in gear, and Green Bay is ready to try just about anything.

Quarterback Bill Wade of the Rams, with passing yardage of 2,632 for the season, has an outside chance to break the all-time mark of 2,938 set by Sammy Baugh at Washington in 1947. His top target is Del Shofner, a defensive star last year, who sparked the 30-28 Ram win over Baltimore.

Halfback Jon Arnett, climaxing a fine sophomore season, and Tom Wilson are the leading rushers for the host squad, which can wind up with an 8-4 record by winning.

It will be the final appearance for linebacker Dick Daugherty, former Oregon star, who is retiring to enter business. Otherwise, the Rams figure to have most of the squad playing Sunday back again next year.

Polo Season Under Way Here Sunday

First game of the Polo season at Eldorado Polo Fields is scheduled for tomorrow afternoon, starting at 2 o'clock.

A strong San Francisco team will oppose the Eldorado Polo Club team in the opening match of the season which will continue through April with games every Sunday afternoon.

Will Tevis, captain of Eldorado, will send Ted Pierce, Todd Heiser, Jack Conant and Morris Morrison on the field to oppose the San Francisco team comprising Peter Hitchcock, Willis Allen, Bob Smith and Lisle Nixon.

Tickets for this match and all the remaining games are available at the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce, at Eldorado Country Club and at the field the day of the play.

Among the teams scheduled to play at Eldorado Fields between now and the end of the season are Con-Car of San Mateo, Red Diamonds from Pomona, La Jolla Polo Club, Crescent Jewelers from Oakland, Salton Sea Polo Club, Tulsa Polo Club from Oklahoma, El Robles from Mexico, Menlo Circus Club from Menlo Park, Santa Barbara Polo Club, Valencia Polo Club from Garden Grove, Long Beach Polo Club and the Brownsville, Texas, Polo Club.

Eaton and Greer Still Lead Field

MONTEBELLO, Calif. (UPI)—Zel Eaton, Chino, and Joe Greer, Yakima, Wash., led a field of 70 top professionals today as the $3500 Montebello open golf tournament moved into its semi-final round.

Dick Knight, California Open champion, topped the second half of the first round Friday with a six-under par 66. The score put him in third place behind Eaton and Greer who are tied at 65 each.

Favor Oklahomans Over Florida State

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI)—Oklahoma State's size and depth made the Cowboys a slim favorite over Florida State as they met today in the inaugural Blue Grass Bowl game, first and northernmost spectacle of the football bowl season.

Imperial Downed By Indians, 36-16

Coach Jim Workman's Indians served notice last night that they wouldn't be push-overs in the upcoming Riverside County League basketball season when they swamped Imperial High 36 to 16 on the local floor.

Last night's tussle was strictly a defensive battle with neither team having a scorer with over 10 points.

Dick McFarland, one of the three returning lettermen on the Tribe squad, was high man for the evening with ten points.

Jos Lewis, another veteran, had eight, Jones, 6, Burke, 4, Strauss, 2, Lilley, 2, Williams, 2, James, 1, and Cirata, 1.

For Imperial Scott had 5, Trammell, 4, Gilmore, 3, Cobligh, 2, Armstrong, 2.

God's Care Told Via Christian Science Lesson

The nature of God to preserve and care for man, both by example and by promise, is illustrated in the Lesson-Sermon "God the Preserver of Man" in all Christian Science services on Sunday. Examples of historical significance and inspired experience from the Bible highlight the sermon, such as the deliverance of the children of Israel from Egypt, Elijah's being cared for while sheltered from his enemies, the birth and saving promise of Christ Jesus and his resurrection.

A quotation from the apostle Luke says of Jesus' birth, "And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people" (2:10).

A correlative passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy declares, "The divine Love, which made harmless the poisonous viper, which delivered men from the boiling oil, from the fiery furnace, from the jaws of the lion, can heal the sick in every age and triumph over sin and death. It crowned the demonstrations of Jesus with unsurpassed power and love" (p. 243).

The Golden Text is from the 91st Psalm (11), "He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways."

Minister Slates Pre-Christmas Topic of 'Joy'

Sunday morning at the worship service of the Church of Religious Science, Minister Lillian Caldwell continues the Pre-Christmas Series with a lesson on the subject: "That Your Joy May Be Full."

"The idea of living joyously falls strangely upon the ears of those who are still caught in fear," according to Rev. Caldwell. "Everyone could do with a little strengthening of the joy concept being lawful in the eyes of God. Reason enough for living joyously is to be found in Holy Writ."

"REASON ENOUGH is to be found in the idea of 'Birth of the Christ Awareness' in the individual. Faced squarely, the issue answers itself readily. If mankind did not know intuitively that he is born for happiness, peace, and fulfillment he would not hasten for alleviation of every limitation in the form of sickness, poverty, pain, and similar bondages."

"Because he knows in his heart that there is something better which insists upon being recognized, mankind started his search for a relationship to Universal Father which would satisfy the basic yearning. Man fashioned for himself a concept of heaven as the possible place for such fulfillment. He also postponed the time until the experience called death."

"THE VERY JESUS whose birth is commemorated at Christmas is the one who proclaimed 'There is no death' and that the Christ awareness comes that your joy may be full. Based on the Christian teaching of heaven within you, here and now—the subject for this week's discussion highlights man's present-day relationship with the birth of Christ concept taught throughout the ages of questing for truth."

"That Your Joy May Be Full" has no reference to futurity. It is descriptive of the result of the Christ-idea being born in the individual soul. It is descriptive of the effect to be produced by this specific planting. Do this—that you might have the joys of the Kingdom, now."

Organist Con Maffie is heard in organ concert at 10:30 and in music for meditation at 10:45. Worship service begins at 11 a.m. at the Village Theater, Junior Church, held concurrently, meets at 190 North Indian Avenue.

Sun Town Deluxe

Osa Mathews held her first Christmas Square Dance party here at Sun Town this week with her happy squares enjoying the occasion with lighthearted abandon. What a happy time of the year with Osa making it that much more enjoyable with her gay voice and happy nature.

The Ladies Wednesday Card Party and luncheon had an especially good time this week. Two table clothes were purchased and displayed which had been purchased with the donations given previously. The luncheon was enjoyed on the patio of the Sky-Room which is delightful this time of the year.

Plans for the Christmas Party are in the air. Many have registered for the Christmas Dinner which will be a community project again such as the Thanksgiving Dinner which proved such an outstanding success.

All the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Arno Glidden will be happy to know that Christine is very much improved and is expected home from the hospital in the next few days.

Rancho Trailer Park

Approximately 200 attended the first fashion show of the season which was held in the Recreation Hall of Rancho Dec. 6 by the Desert Aire Dress Shop of Cathedral City. Fun and refreshments were on the menu and the latest in striking clothes on the attractive models.

This week was especially busy. On Dec. 5, the return of the Strickland Orchestra Dance was held with the resulting standing room only. This orchestra will now play for the Friday night dances for the remainder of the season.

The Tuesday night dances are for square dancing and the well known Lee Mathis calls these regularly every Tuesday night.

The Rancho Park shuffleboard tournaments are now well under way. Last week the winners in the doubles were Ted Saunders and Fred Clement. Singles winner was Verna Whiteside.

Lois Hague has now returned to her home in Los Angeles. She recently spent two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Hague. Lois is strong in her praises of her "itty bitty" as she calls her Volkswagen.

A benefit card party for the Angel View Hospital is being planned for 1 p.m., Dec. 17, in the Rancho Recreation Hall. All ladies are welcome at this time.

The Recreation Hall here at Rancho is especially festive this year because of the beautiful Christmas tree which Mr. J. L. Dexter provided.

Skyridge

Everyone is admiring the rose and white 45-foot long, 10-foot wide mobile home that faces the fountain here at the far end of Skyridge Park. Arthur and Nettie Verdun are the owners of this beauty and they come from Glendale.

Neighbors here in the park are still talking of their delightful trip to Disneyland enjoyed last week. Clara Hancock took many pictures that day and all are reliving the fine time they had. After the delicious dinner at the Gourmet Restaurant in the Disneyland Hotel, the shops proved so interesting it seems it was a hard task collecting everyone for the trip home. Many are already asking "when and where shall we go next?" Twenty-nine make up a large family but added to the enjoyment of the carefree day.

Sally and Warren Glass spent Thanksgiving with their family in Temple City. They say they are very happy to return to Skyridge and the pure air and sunshine of our desert. The smog and fog was the worst of their experience in Los Angeles and surrounding cities.

"Hi" and Avis Ball had their grandchildren visiting them over the past weekend. The George Dudes enjoyed their little grandson over Saturday and Sunday.

Les and Dorothy Simpson are new in the park. They are from Calgary, Alberta.

Maudine Mundell has as guest this past week. Col. and Mrs. D. W. Titus, who are especially enjoying the Skyridge heated pool. Mrs. R. F. Taylor returned to Skyridge from a visit with her daughter Marilyn Holloway, who makes her home in San Luis Obispo.

Welcomed here recently are Elmer and Catherine Sather from Bremerton, Wash., William and Elsie Holmes from Berkeley, Cal., Rowe and Nancy from Vancouver, B.C., and Florence Jarke from Eugene, Ore.

Desert Hills

Many residents here in this unusually friendly park enjoyed the excellent ham dinner served Dec. 4. Later, colored movies of the Alcan Trailer Trek were shown by the Mobile Home Assn. Colored slides of the Orient by Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland were also shown. All who attended enjoyed the dinner and the pictures a great deal. Florence Stauffacher won the door prize, an unusually clever thermometer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Uhlis excitedly related their pleasure they experienced during their recent visit to Disneyland. This "land" is for the child in our hearts that never grows older.

Desert Hills from a business and Clara Yelocan has returned to pleasure trip to Long Beach. Long Beach is the Yelocan's former home.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ketchum of North Hollywood are the new residents here at Desert Hills, as are Mr. and Mrs. Rush Grange of Anaheim, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Nicolay and daughter of San Bernardino, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cate of Brookings, Ore., and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sundblad of Long Beach. The Sundblads are formerly of Chicago and while stopping here met again their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kosbie, formerly of Chicago, who are now the managers and owners of Desert Hills. What a happy coincidence and a small world.

The Arts and Crafts group here in Desert Hills are particularly happy with their projects. They now have 14 dolls and cradles, 17 silver trees and many many ornaments which are to be donated to the mentally retarded children of a Pomona hospital. This Christmas gesture is in the true spirit of the Christmas Day.

Mrs. Florence Stauffacher, resident here, is now recovering satisfactorily from a broken arm she received last week while shopping.

The Tramview Orchestra for ballroom dancing has a new name, that of the "Cactus Melody Makers." They play each Tuesday here at Tramview. The orchestra consists of Jack Dunn, Floyd Bare, Walt Nabower, Ernie Higgs, Robert Dodds and Okeo Nulton. Refreshments are served during the intermissions by the management and all who attend enjoy these Tuesday night dances a great deal.

On Saturday night, ballroom and square dancing are enjoyed by residents and their guests. The Three Harmonizers provide the music for the Saturday night dances. On Wednesdays Osa Mathews calls squares for all to enjoy.

One of the most popular activities enjoyed by the residents of Tramview is that of the Sunday Community Sing. Katy Steever, Emma Shumaker, Ernie Higgs, Elmer Morrow and Stanley Gregory help with considerable enthusiasm and with the coming of Christmas Day, many delightful favorites are heard.

The many hobbyists here at Tramview are busy with their special, gift articles. Copper-enameled jewelry, pine needle purses and other articles, copper screen belts of various and vivid colors, ornaments of tin fashioned, and of course, the outstanding shell jewelry and ornaments with their delicate and intricate beauty.

The large recreation Hall here at Tramview is becoming very festive. "Tin can" decorations of fastidiously designed are for trimming the tree. Crepe paper wreaths and trees are now being planned and also the big Christmas Eve Party. At that time Santa will be by to greet all who attend Tramview's party. A program appropriate to the occasion, gift exchange and refreshments are planned at the present time.

Angel View Branch Officers Installed

To Assist Original Auxiliary

Installation of 1959 officers in the Palm Springs Chapter of the Women's Auxiliary of the Angel View Crippled Children's Foundation was held during an 11 a.m. brunch at the Palm Springs Tennis Club Wednesday.

Installed were Mrs. Jack Copass, president; Bruno di Grandi, first vice president; Frank Bogert, second vice president; Martha Murdoch, secretary and Irene Felker, treasurer.

ALSO INSTALLED were the members of the executive committee including Mrs. John Seamans, Ray Lusby, Irwin Schuman and Harry Grimm.

Each of the ladies was presented with a pastel carnation fashioned by children at Angel View. Chrysanthemums in varying shades of pink and red roses decorated the speakers table.

FOLLOWING THE actual installation — in which Mrs. Lola Hemingway, president of the Desert Hot Springs Auxiliary, pinned a white and silver angel's wing on the shoulder of each new officer — Mrs. Copass discussed the overall planning for Angel View for the coming year.

Included in the program, she said, is the erection of a 10-bed hospital for "in patient" care. At present all patients are treated on an "out" basis and the crippled children must be boarded in private homes or live in motels.

THE NON-SECTARIAN clinic, founded by Mrs. C. C. Covey and Leslie Morgan, administers to crippled children who are without financial ability to pay. Both were presented at the brunch as was Mrs. Pearl McManus, "first lady" of Palm Springs, and Mrs. Zeddie Bunker, the pioneer "flying great-grandmother" of Palm Springs.

Special guests at the Tennis Club for the event were Mrs. Ward Risvold, Henrietta Parker, Earle Strebe, Nettie Goff, Alice Walker, Doak Davis, Richard Bagdasarian and Bess Grant. In addition, some 22 members of the Desert Hot Springs Auxiliary were also on hand.

WHILE SOUTHLAND citizens were flocking to Palm Springs this week, a pair of Villagers enjoyed themselves at the British Colonial Hotel in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Here are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Weiger, of 1385 South Calle Marcus, who have been at the Florida sunspot for the past 13 day and are anticipated home—to our own desert sunspot—momentarily.

Competition promises to be strong between the three matadors, Luis Procuna, El Calesero and Guillermo Carvajal, who are vying for the Golden Rose of Guadalupe, valued at $1,000. Close to 100 Villagers were in attendance last year when Luis Procuna won the Golden Rose.

Villagers planning to attend Sunday are Jay Cody, Jim Di Ponzet, Kathy Herrick, Connie Erickson, the Don Castles, Ray Corlisses, Betty McGee, Lynn Jennings, Julian and Vi Olmick, Rick Harrison, Keith Hayes, George McGregors, Hy Finnermans and guests, the Guadalupe Boys and many more.

Christmas in Old Mexico Is Featured at Padua Hills Theater

CLAREMONT — The Mexican Players at Padua Hills Theatre reveal their amazing versatility in "Las Posadas," the story of Christmas in Old Mexico.

Featuring a partially new cast in this 27th season of its performance, most of the players perform two or more roles. Ausencio Gutierrez, his flair for comedy manifested in the first act in his role as the pinata vender, switches to a dramatic role in the coloquio as el diablo, meaning the devil.

Armida Maldonado proves she has a growing talent in playing the roles of Lupe and as the Virgin Mary in the coloquio, while Manuel Vera doubles as the priest and the lazy one.

"Las Posadas" also features Rogelio Alfaro, Lupita Figueroa, Alicia Sevilla, Manuel Gonzales, Maria Abundiz, Graciela Morales, Guadalupe Rubio, Alicia Narvaez, Blas Romero Tellez, Juan Soto, Gregorio Valadez, and Eligio Herrera, who directs the staging of the play.

It is performed six times weekly, Wednesday through Saturday at 8:30 p. m., with matinees each Wednesday and Saturday starting at 2:30.

The current "Holiday" exhibition at Padua is a group showing of paintings and drawings by Padua Hills and Claremont artists. It will continue through December.

The Mexican Players also entertain at luncheon and dinner daily except Mondays in the dining room of non-profit Padua Institute. Merienda brings players and audience together after each performance of "Las Posadas" for an interlude of songs and dances. Reservations may be made by calling NATIONAL 6-1288, Claremont.

B'nai B'rith Play To be Discussed

Plans for the B'nai B'rith presentation of "A Night at Duffy's Tavern" will be discussed by the board of directors of the organization at a luncheon being given by first vice president Mrs. Rina Spears at the Racquet Club Monday.

25 Students Die As Streamliner Hits School Bus

ESSEX, Ont. — (AP) — A crack passenger train from New York crashed into a parochial school bus at a grade crossing three miles east of here today, killing two boys and injuring the driver and three other pupils.

The victims were identified by Father M. J. O'Neill of Holy Name Catholic School, Essex, as Paul Posse and David Purvis, both nine-year-olds, of Cottam.

THE DRIVER, Albert Slock Essex, and Roger Rivest, 8, Julie Bena 13, and her sister, Jeanne, 10, all of Cottam, were treated for injuries at the Essex Medical Center.

Four other youngsters escaped without injuries.

The bus was owned by the Holy Name School.

OFFICIALS of New York Central Railroad said the passenger train the Detroit was due in Detroit at 8 a.m., but was running about 30 minutes behind schedule.

The crossing at which the accident occurred had no flasher signal.

Visibility was reported as good at the time of the accident.

Business - owned aircraft flew 4,900,000 hours last year, against 3,600,000 for commercial planes, according to the Civil Aeronautics Administration.

TO: The entire staff of a local hotel, including its congenial manager, and a local Disc - Jockey whom I believe to be the greatest UNDER the entire desert. I wish to donate the following bit of Philosophy.

"GO PLACIDLY amid the noise and the haste; and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible, without surrender, be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even to the dull and ignorant; they too, have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons; they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others you will become vain or bitter, for always there will be greater or lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs, for the world is full of trickery. But let not this blind you to what virtue there is; for many persons strive for high ideals, and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment, it is as perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with dark imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore, be at peace with God— and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life, keep peace in your soul. With all its sham, drudgery, and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be cheerful. Strive to be HAPPY."

Annexation Approved by Board

Action Follows Request

Board of Education members this week approved annexation of a portion of the Cabazon School District extending into the Palm Springs Oasis residential tract.

Annexation of the tract was requested by residents of the tract, which is divided by the boundaries of the Palm Springs Unified and Cabazon School Districts.

Schools Supt. Dwight Twist pointed out that half of the school age children in the tract are eligible to attend schools here while the remainder must attend Cabazon Schools or seek special permission to attend classes here.

Following unanimous board approval of the annexation proposal, Board President appointed Special Services Director Paul Summit to represent the board at a public hearing.

The County Board of Supervisors has scheduled public hearing on the request for Jan. 26 in Riverside.

Palm Lane Home Decoration Contest Set

Palm Springs builder Jack Meiselman today invited residents of his Palm Lane Estates homes to participate in a Christmas decoration contest.

Meiselman said he is awarding prizes for the best decorated homes in the 45-home development.

Homes will be viewed by contest judges on the evening of Dec. 23, Meiselman said. Prizes will be awarded for the best decorated house-tops, doorways and general outdoor areas.

Winners will be announced in the Dec. 27 edition of The Desert Sun, Meiselman said.

He added that judges are now being selected for the contest. Interior Designer Arthur Elrod is the first to join the judging panel, Meiselman said.

When England's Queen Elizabeth I found that her own red hair was growing paler and thinner, she had some 80 wigs designed in shades of auburn, orange and gold, according to the National Geographic Magazine.

Jail Escapee Proves His Point

TUSCUMBIA, Ala. (UPI)—Herman Byrd left Sheriff Raymond Wheeler a bit of advice after breaking out of jail for the second time this month.

"This county needs a new jail worse than a dead man needs a coffin," Byrd wrote.

Giant Pumpkin

ACUSHNET, Mass. — (UPI)—Farmer John Tavares' pumpkin harvest this year included a 206-pounder which, it was estimated, could be made into 170 pumpkin pies.

Investigation Started on Reclamation

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Action that could open thousands of acres here to development has been promised by Congressman D. S. Sand as a result of a request from the Desert Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce.

The lands, condemned by the Riverside County Planning Commission as a result of flood danger from Little Morongo and Mission canyons, are located west of Desert Hot Springs.

DR. JAMES COMPTON, chairman of the DHS Chamber's Soil Conservation Committee, had sought aid from Sand in a letter. Compton's letter said that the commission had simply condemned the property without offering any "suggestion as to how the flood hazard could be remedied."

Sand sought aid from acting administrator Gladwin Young, of the Agriculture Department's Soil Conservation Service.

YOUNG REPLIED to Sand's plea with the notification that California State Conservationist John S. Barnes had been assigned to the problem and would "investigate the area."

A report from Barnes will channel through Young and then be made available to Sand and to Desert Hot Springs property owners.

Compton told Sand that individual property owners would be unable to remedy the flood hazard themselves because of "prohibitive costs."

Restaurant To Be Enlarged

A permit to enlarge the Phoenix Development Corp. restaurant at 67-580 Highway 111 has been issued in permits for county area abutting Palm Springs.

The enlargement is valued at $4,200.

Also issued was a permit to John Dracko, for relocation of a dwelling on Neuna Drive. The job is valued at $4,500.

Some Changes Made

WATERLOO, N. Y. — (UPI) — John Scott Valder will need plenty of changes in the near future, but he won't be able to use the first one he got for about 16 years.

John was the first baby born at a new hospital here, and among the gifts he received from local businessmen was a free change of automobile oil.

Dear Abby...

... by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: Our neighbor sent her husband to a dermatologist to check the moles on his back and the doctor removed one of them. This neighbor asked me if I ever checked my husband's moles and I told her no. In fact, I don't even KNOW whether he has any moles on his back. She told me if I really loved my husband I would know where his moles were and how many he had, as they can be a dangerous thing. This may seem silly to you, Abby, but this lady got me to worrying. Do you think I should check my husband for moles?

ANNABELLE
DEAR ANNABELLE: This is far from silly. All skin growth should be watched and checked periodically by a doctor.

DEAR ABBY: Do you think a man who cheats on his expense account would cheat on his wife?

JUST ASKING
DEAR JUST: Only those who can't resist nice round figures.

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I have no children so we have always been very generous at Christmas time with the children of our friends. In many cases these children get so many gifts they can't even remember which are ours. I know it isn't their fault, but do you think we should continue sending them Christmas presents? How do you "break the habit?"

CHILDLESS
DEAR CHILDLESS: Simply write a note telling them that this year a gift to some underprivileged child has been sent in their name. Then get a list of needy children from a local orphanage, Salvation Army or Welfare Society. Your gift will mean so much more!

DEAR ABBY: My mother was one of those women Lucille was talking about when she said, "How can a woman be so lacking in pride as to hang on to a man for the sake of her children?" My mother has always had trouble with my father because he couldn't resist other women. She says she used to eat her heart out but now she understands that this is his one weakness and she took him for better or for worse. In spite of his weakness he is a good father and is good to my mother. I am glad my mother had "no pride."

THEIR DAUGHTER
DEAR ABBY: The letter signed "LUCILLE" certainly hit home with me. I went with a married man who swore he loved me, but his wife wouldn't give him a divorce "because of the children."

He asked me to wait for him, until "the children" were out of High School. Then college, and then until after "the children" were married. "The children," Dear Abby, now have children of their own and I am STILL waiting.

WORLD'S BIGGEST FOOL
DEAR ABBY: I am a 15-year-old boy and my problem is my mother. She likes to play poker. She plays every Tuesday night and gets home about two in the morning and the next morning she's too tired to get up and fix my breakfast. The worst part of it is she always loses. I can't talk to her. I wish you'd give her some advice.

RICKEY
DEAR RICKEY: It won't hurt you to fix your own breakfast once a week. The best advice I can offer your mother is: "Don't open unless you have Jacks or better."

CONFIDENTIAL TO GENE

Just get a little lettuce together and you'll have no trouble finding the tomatoes.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

If you want a collection of Abby's best letters and answers in one book, ask your bookdealer to get "DEAR ABBY" for you.
